

Will our MOU become invalid after we leave SEIU?

NO! SEIU has been circulating rumors that our MOU will become “invalid” if we decertify them. The MOU remains in effect UNTIL our new Association decides that it wants to renegotiate it.

This is established precedent under the Meyers-Milias –Brown Act (state bargaining law.)

If the City could “invalidate” the MOU, no group would EVER decertify their union. In truth, more than 28,000 in people in 54 agencies have decertified the SEIU since 2005.
